

Applications Open for 2024-2025 VFW-SVA Legislative Fellowship

The opportunity allows student veteran VFW members to address issues directly with Congress

Aug 09, 2024

WASHINGTON — The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and Student Veterans of America (SVA) are now accepting applications from student veterans interested in participating in the upcoming 2024-2025 VFW-SVA Legislative Fellowship program. Now in its 11th year, the fellowship will bring select student veterans — who must be VFW members — to Washington, D.C., early next March to meet face to face with their members of Congress and senior policymakers.

Student veterans interested in applying must complete an application package that includes a 400 – 600-word essay and video proposal on the importance of veteran advocacy. The submission should include a discussion of why advocacy is important to the veteran community, and how the fellowship candidate plans to address solutions through community-based advocacy.

Past fellows have earned academic credit for their experience, found internships, accepted additional academic opportunities, and landed fulltime employment as a result of their fellowship experience. Several fellows have even had their research integrated into laws, which makes an everlasting impact on veterans, service members and their families.

VFW-SVA Legislative Fellowship opportunities are open to all currently enrolled student veterans. VFW eligibility criteria can be found here. Selected fellows will attend and participate in SVA's 17th Annual National Conference in Colorado Springs, Colorado, Jan. 2 – 4, 2025. They will then be flown to Washington, D.C., to ensure the veterans' message is delivered to Capitol Hill alongside 500 fellow advocates as part of the VFW Legislative Conference, March 1 – 5, 2025.

All applications must be submitted by midnight on Sept. 15. For full details about the VFW-SVA fellowship and to apply, visit VFW.org/StudentFellowship or contact Joe Grassi, VFW,
