Clinton, Utah, veteran and VFW Life member Chuck Love is #StillServing through leadership positions at the Corporal Fred J. Grant Post 1481 in nearby Ogden.

As the Post’s junior vice commander and honor guard captain, Love works as a liaison between families seeking military honors for loved ones at their funerals and the military organizations that provide them.

“The country’s veterans deserve to be honored, even after death,” he said. “This way, I can help ensure they are.”

Additionally, Love is an adult leader for the Post’s special needs Scout Troop 1481, providing guidance, support and organization for scouting and community youth activities.

“I enjoy working with the special needs scout members and hosting fun events. Assisting the community is important to me,” he said.
